Bio-note:

RAMSEY FERRER is Associate Professor and former Dean of the Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences of Philippine State College of Aeronautics, where he serves as member of its Board of Trustees. He served as Director of the Research and Development Center in the same college from 2018-2019. He is affiliated with the Philippine Higher Education Research Consortium, Inc. Manila, the International Association for World Englishes, the International Civil Aviation English Association, and the Linguistic Society of the Philippines. He obtained a Bachelor's degree in Secondary Education, major in English, cum laude, at Philippine Normal University South Luzon. He earned a Master's degree in English Language Teaching from the De La Salle University-Manila, where he is writing a dissertation for his Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics degree. His publications appear in the International Journal of Education and Research (Australia), Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University (USA), Philippine ESL Journal, Pacific Asia Conference on Language, Information and Computation Scopus-indexed Proceedings, DLSU Research Congress, PhilSCA Research Journal, and University of Perpetual Help System-DALTA Graduate School Multidisciplinary Research Journal.

In September this year, he was invited to present a paper on 'evaluating the language learning strategies utilized in developing proficiency in phraseology: the case of the Philippines' during the International Civil Aviation English Association Conference held in Istanbul, Turkey. Recently, he received the Outstanding Paper Award for his corpus linguistic paper presented at the 4th International Conference on Applied Linguistics and Language Education. His research delves into the ways language(s) is used in the field of aviation. He researches aviation English in general and aeronautical English in particular. He specializes in aviation English, corpus linguistics, sociolinguistics, and world Englishes and has pioneered aviation English research in the Philippines since 2016.
